

VICTORIAN BAR INFORMATION SESSION 16 MARCH 2016

Interested in a career in the law?

On 16 March the Victorian Bar and Hume City Council are partnering to run an information session about career paths following the study of law and in particular, the practise of law as a barrister. Students in year 10-12 are encouraged to come to this session and hear from judges about their experiences. Top Victorian universities will also be on hand to provide information about how you can get into law courses at uni.

Find out about work experience opportunities and a mentoring program designed to assist in the career development of students who have an interest in a legal career.

This free information session will take place on:

Date:	Wednesday 16 March 2016
Time:	4.30pm to 6.00pm
Venue:	Seminar Rooms 4 & 5, Hume Global Learning Centre, 1093 Pascoe Vale Road, Broadmeadows
RSVP by:	Friday 11 March 2016

Light refreshments will be served.

The information session will include addresses to the students by:

- The Honourable Chief Justice Marilyn Warren AC of the Supreme Court of Victoria;
- The Honourable Justice Michelle Gordon of the High Court; and
- Paul Anastassiou QC, President of the Victorian Bar.

For enquiries on the venue or to RSVP contact

Maria Casalbuono, Hume City Council on mariac@hume.vic.gov.au or 9205 2586.

For enquiries on the free mentoring program contact

Nicole Dawson, The Victorian Bar on nicole.dawson@vicbar.com.au or 9225 7111.

VICTORIAN BAR

