

SUNBURY PUBLIC CEMETERY

On 28 October 2011 the Trust dedicated plaques to acknowledge those residents of the former Sunbury Industrial School (1865 to 1878), Sunbury Asylum (1879 to 1948), Sunbury Training Centre (1972 to 1986) and Caloola Training Centre (1986 to 1993) who are recorded by the Sunbury Cemetery Trust as interred within the cemetery.

The plaques are located in a rotunda at the Sunbury Public Cemetery.

The memorial was constructed by the Sunbury Cemetery Trust with assistance provided by the Hume City Council, Friends of Sunbury Public Cemetery Advisory Committee, the Leader Newspaper Group, the Sunbury Family History Society Inc, and the Sunbury and District Heritage Association.

In preparing the plaques, the Trust encountered different spelling of names within its early and incomplete records. The Trust endeavoured to check these details to ensure the plaques were as accurate as possible based on information in the records held by the Trust. The list below includes the details recorded on the memorial plaques together with alternative names and spellings of names contained in the records of the Trust.
