

HUME CITY COUNCIL CRAIGIEBURN SPORTS STADIUM AND SURROUNDS MASTERPLAN

INTRODUCTION

Hume residents will have access to improved community facilities, as part of plans to revitalise the Craigieburn Sports Stadium and Surrounds precinct, an 11.2-hectare site in the centre of Craigieburn.

As part of this, Council is working with urban designer City Collective to develop a Craigieburn Sports Stadium and Surrounds Masterplan, which will be shaped through your feedback.

The Masterplan will lay out the vision for what the future of this community precinct could look like.

BACKGROUND

The Craigieburn Sports Stadium and Surrounds site is a Hume City Council-owned site, located at 59-153 Craigieburn Road, Craigieburn.

The precinct is a combination of new and aged building infrastructure located primarily to the north of the site and along the north western boundary. The site also has 6.4 hectares of passive and active space collectively known as 'Craigieburn Gardens' located centrally and to the south of the site bordered by Aitken Creek.
