Child Safety and Wellbeing Policy

1 Policy statement

At Hume City Council (Council) safeguarding children and young people is everyone's responsibility.

Everyone has the responsibility to be alert to and respond to risks of harm to children and young people, incidents of child abuse and neglect and to create and maintain a child safe culture. Staff will do this by following appropriate safeguarding practice and behaviour as set out in policy and procedural guidelines.

Council recognises that all children and young people have the fundamental right to develop, reach their full potential, and feel safe and supported in the community in which they live. Children and young people have the right to equitable access to services and supportive environments.

2 Commitment to Child Safety

Council is committed to keeping children and young people safe and protected. All children and young people who access services provided by Council have the right to be safe and feel safe.

The safety, well-being and interests of children and young people are paramount, and we have a zero-tolerance approach to child abuse. Council is committed to creating and maintaining a child safe organisation where children and young people are valued and protected from harm and abuse.

Council is welcoming of all children and young people and is committed to the principles of cultural safety and inclusion for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander children, children with a refugee or migrant background, those who have a disability, those who are unable to live at home and those who identify as lesbian, gay, bisexual, trans, intersex, queer, gender diverse and asexual (LGBTIQA+). Council aims to create child safe and friendly environments where children and young people feel safe and can fully participate. Council actively listens to and supports children to be strong, confident, and self-determined citizens.

3 Purpose

- 3.1 Council has zero-tolerance approach towards child abuse and neglect and is committed to the rights of all children and young people to feel safe and be safe when participating in Council activities, services, and events.
- 3.2 This policy outlines the responsibilities of all Council staff to keep children and young people safe.
- 3.3 This policy reflects child safe legislation and promotes best practice for working with children and young people. Council is committed to acting in the best interests of children and young people and building a culture of child safety at all levels.
- 3.4 This policy is to be read in conjunction with the Safeguarding Children and Young People Code of Conduct to ensure that staff understand their responsibility in child safety and can meet their legislative obligations.
- 3.5 In accordance with this policy, allegations of child abuse and reportable conduct will be fully investigated within the organisation's legislative scope and handled with confidentiality and discretion, whilst ensuring that the best interests of children and young people are upheld.

Child Safety and Wellbeing Policy

4 Scope

The Child Safety and Wellbeing Policy (Policy) applies to all staff in paid and unpaid capacities including, Councillors, employees, casual employees, students on placement, volunteers, contractors, and workers and volunteers provided by labour hire agencies, companies or other providers (staff).

The Policy applies irrespective of whether roles have direct contact with children and young people.

This Policy extends to all Council environments and all interactions with children and young people including but not limited to, Council facilities, activities, programs and services and open spaces in both physical and online environments.

It covers children and young people up to the age of 18 years.

This Policy has been developed to support Council's compliance with the eleven Victorian Child Safe Standards, established under the Child Safety and Wellbeing Act 2005.

5 Responsibilities

The safety of children and young people is everyone's responsibility. Everybody has a duty of care to keep children and young people safe, regardless of their role.

6 Hume City Council Staff

6.1 Safeguarding Children and Young People Code of Conduct (SCYP Code of Conduct)

Council has a SCYP Code of Conduct outlining the expectations of staff which must be read in conjunction with this Policy.

Before working with children, all staff must read, understand and agree to comply with the code of conduct.

6.2 Recruitment of staff

The safety of children and young people is at the centre of recruitment and screening. Council's statement of commitment is included in job advertisements, and child safety related questions are asked in job interviews.

For roles that have direct or indirect contact with children and young people a Working with Children Check (WWCC), police check, and comprehensive referee checks are required.

6.3 Support to staff

Council is committed to ensuring that all staff receive training to understand their responsibilities in relation to child safety. Training provided will be a combination of face-to-face and/ or online depending on the role.

Child Safety and Wellbeing Policy

All staff are required to complete Child Safe Standards and Reportable Conduct training modules through the learning management system annually, within 30 days of it being allocated.

Child protection and mandatory reporting training through the Department of Education must also be completed by relevant staff.

Staff have access to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Engagement - Building Aboriginal Cultural Competency training through the corporate training calendar.

Staff may also be required to engage in other prescribed training as the need is identified.

7 Policy

7.1 Children's Empowerment and Participation

Council seeks to ensure that children and young people are informed about their rights to safety and participation.

The voice of children and young people will be considered in all aspects of Council business including the provision of services, programs and activities. Children and young people should be seen as active citizens in their community. Council will do this by providing formal and informal opportunities for children and young people to have a say in decisions that affect them.

7.2 Families and Communities

Council recognises the important role of families and seeks to involve them in decisions that may affect their children.

Families are encouraged to provide feedback or raise concerns with Council as the need arises.

Council provides information to families and the community regarding child safe policies and practises by:

- Publishing this policy and (SCYP) Code of Conduct on Council's website
- Providing information about our approach to child safety to parents of children accessing Council's programs and services
- Providing families with information and support to report a concern, or allegation in a range of options which are provided in a number of community languages.

7.3 Diversity and Inclusion

Hume is an incredibly diverse municipality and Council is committed to creating an inclusive and safe environment for all in our community. Racism is not tolerated.

Council is welcoming of all children and young people and is committed to the principles of cultural safety and inclusion for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander children, children with a refugee or migrant background, those who have a disability, those who are unable to live at home and those who identify as LGBTIQ+.

Council has a number of plans and frameworks including:

- Reconciliation Action Plan outlining the commitment to supporting and strengthening connections in Aboriginal communities and creating culturally safe environments for Aboriginal children and their families.
- The Multicultural Framework outlines the support of established migrant communities as well as newly arrived and emerging communities.
- Social Justice Charter defines Council's commitment to social justice, access, inclusion, equity and fairness.
- A range of resources, groups and services available to those to identify as LGBTIQ+.

7.4 Reporting and responding to child abuse allegations

All staff have a responsibility to report risks of harm to children and young people, child abuse and reportable conduct.

Council's processes to manage complaints and concerns are child focused. Reports will be treated seriously and responded to promptly and thoroughly, guided by the Reporting Child Abuse and Reportable Conduct Procedure.

Reportable conduct investigations are outsourced to an independent investigator as per recommendations of the Royal Commission into Institutional Responses to Child Sexual Abuse (Royal Commission).

Staff are expected to cooperate with child safety investigations conducted internally or externally, including but not limited to investigations conducted by an independent investigator, Victoria Police, Department of Education (DE) and the Department of Families, Fairness and Housing (DFFH).

7.4.1 Child Safe Committee

The Child Safe Committee (Committee) will have oversight of all child safe reports. The committee is made up of:

- Manager People & Culture
- Project Officer – Child Safe Standards
- Coordinator People & Partnerships
- Coordinator Integrity Support

The committee can take reports from children, young people, families, and members of the community, and can provide guidance and support to Council staff in relation to issues of child abuse and reportable conduct.

7.4.2 Types of reports

There are two types of incidents or allegations that must be reported:

- Child abuse or neglect: Includes the risk of harm from physical, emotional, sexual, grooming, neglect or family violence. This type of allegation must also be reported to the relevant statutory authority i.e., Victoria Police or Child Protection.

Policy Reference No:	POL/284	Responsible Officer:	Manager Governance

Child Safety and Wellbeing Policy

- Reportable Conduct: This type of allegation occurs when the abuse or misconduct (sexual offences or misconduct, physical abuse, behaviour that causes significant emotional or psychological harm or neglect) is perpetrated by staff, volunteers, contractors or labour hire staff. Under the Reportable Conduct Scheme, this must be reported to the Commission for Children and Young People (CCYP) and Victoria Police.

All staff have a responsibility to report child abuse, neglect and reportable conduct. Even if they are unsure, or do not have all of the required information, if there is a reasonable belief that abuse or neglect is occurring, it must be reported.

The committee can help staff to determine if there is reasonable belief, which is more than a suspicion. Some objective basis for the belief must exist, however this is not the same as having proof and does not require certainty. Reasonable belief is likely to be formed if the person reporting the alleged conduct:

- has observed the conduct
- has heard information directly from a child that the conduct has occurred
- has received information from another source (including another witness)

Incidents and allegations can be reported by anyone, including children and young people, parents, community members, as well as Council staff.

Staff are to report all incidents or allegations through Elumina, as well as the relevant statutory authority. The child safe committee can support staff through this process. For further information consult the Reporting Child Abuse and Reportable Conduct Procedure.

7.5 Privacy, Record keeping and Information Sharing

All personal information collected and recorded in relation to a report and investigation will be handled in accordance with Council's Privacy Policy.

The best interests of the child or young person is the paramount consideration when making decisions in relation to privacy.

Under the Child Information Sharing Scheme and the Family Violence Information Sharing Scheme Policy, there are prescribed Council staff that are legally required to share information to ensure the safety and wellbeing of children and young people.

7.6 Risk Management

All risks to the safety and wellbeing of children and young people are taken seriously. Council will work to identify, remove or reduce risks in line with risk management framework.

7.7 Third Party Operators

There are contractual agreements with third parties that hire, access, or use buildings where children and young people are present, or that deliver services to children, young people and families.

The requirement to comply with child safety obligations will be included in contracts based on the level of engagement with and risk to children and young people.

8 Breaches of policy and code of conduct

Council will enforce this policy, the SCYP Code of Conduct and any related child safety and wellbeing policies. Potential breaches will be investigated and managed in accordance with Council's Disciplinary Policy.

Child Safety and Wellbeing Policy

SAFEGUARDING CHILDREN AND YOUNG PEOPLE (SCYP) CODE OF CONDUCT

Introduction

At Hume City Council (Council) safeguarding children and young people is everyone's responsibility.

Everyone has the responsibility to be alert to and respond to risks of harm to children and young people, incidents of child abuse and neglect and to create and maintain a child safe culture. Staff will do this by following appropriate safeguarding practice and behaviour as set out in policy and procedural guidelines.

Council recognises that all children and young people have the fundamental right to develop, reach their full potential, feel safe and supported in the community in which they live. Children and young people have the right to equitable access to services and supportive environments.

Council requires that Councillors, staff, volunteers and contractors understand and follow child safe principles and expectations for appropriate behaviour towards, and in the company of children and young people at all times.

Statement of Commitment

Council is committed to keeping children and young people safe and protected. All children and young people and who access services provided by Council have the right to be safe and feel safe.

The safety, well-being and interests of children and young people are paramount, and we have a zero-tolerance approach to child abuse. Council is committed to creating and maintaining a child safe organisation where children and young people are valued and protected from harm and abuse.

Council is welcoming of all children and young people and is committed to the principles of cultural safety and inclusion for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander children and young people, children and young people with a refugee or migrant background, those who have a disability, those who are unable to live at home and those who identify as lesbian, gay, bisexual, trans, intersex, queer, gender diverse and asexual (LGBTIQA+). Council aims to create child safe and friendly environments where children and young people feel safe and can fully participate. Council actively listens to and supports children and young people to be strong, confident, and self-determined citizens.

Purpose

The SCYP Code of Conduct:

- Sets clear expectations about how staff must and must not behave towards and in the presence of children and young people, in both physical and online environments.
- Supports staff to identify and report potential behavioural and conduct issues against children and young people.
- Must be read in conjunction with:
 - The specific requirements of your role as defined in your position description.

Child Safety and Wellbeing Policy

- The Child Safety and Wellbeing Policy.
- All applicable laws, including in relation to privacy, confidentiality, information sharing and record keeping.

Scope

The SCYP Code of Conduct applies to all staff in paid and unpaid capacities including Councillors, employees, casual employees, students on placement, volunteers, contractors, and workers and volunteers provided by labour hire agencies, companies or other providers (staff).

It includes sexual misconduct or physical violence, committed against, with or in the presence of, a child, any behaviour that causes significant emotional or psychological harm to a child or neglect of a child, in both the physical and online environments.

It covers children and young people up to the age of 18 years.

It does not cover all situations and staff who are uncertain about their role or responsibility in a particular situation must contact their manager, the Project Officer-Child Safe Standards or Manager People and Culture for advice.

Standards and Obligations

Staff will ensure that children and young people participating in Council programs or services are aware of Council's expectations in relation to acceptable behaviour towards them.

I will:

- Uphold Council's Statement of Commitment to child safety at all times and act in accordance with Council's Child Safety and Wellbeing Policies and procedures, including this Code, the Policy and any related procedures.
- Ensure appropriate supervision of children and young people with consideration to their age, development and other vulnerabilities.
Place the best interests of children and young people above the interests of the organisation or other individuals within it, subject to legislative obligations.
- Uphold the rights of children and young people who come into contact with Council and empower them by providing an environment where they can actively participate and have a say, especially on issues that are important to them.
- Listen and respond to the views of children and young people, especially when they have concerns about their safety.
- Provide a welcoming, inclusive and safe environment that supports and values the ideas and opinions of children and young people and treats them with respect regardless of their race, colour, gender identity, sex, sexual orientation, religion, political or other opinion, national, ethnic or social origin, culture, disability or other status.
- Have zero tolerance of racism and will act on any racist incidents that arise.
- Actively promote the safety, participation, empowerment, cultural safety and inclusion of all children and young people, in particular Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander children and young people, children and young people from culturally and linguistically diverse communities, those with a disability, those who cannot live at home and those who identify as LGBTQTI+.

Child Safety and Wellbeing Policy

- Discriminate against any child or young person including based on their identification as Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander, being culturally and linguistically diverse, disability status, inability to live at home or LGBTQI+ status.
- Engage in any practice which attempts to change or suppress a child or young person's sexual orientation or gender identity.
- Use any computer, mobile phone, or video and digital camera, or software applications to exploit or harass children and young people or expose them to offensive or sexualised content.
- Exchange personal contact details with a child or young person such as phone number, social networking sites or email address, unless authorised by a direct Manager.
- Have unauthorised contact with a child, young person or their family outside of the council including online, on social media or by phone.
- Use, possess or be under the influence of illegal drugs while responsible for children and young people.

Breach of the SCYP Code of Conduct

Council has zero tolerance for child abuse and will take all allegations of reportable conduct seriously. Staff who breach the SCYP Code of Conduct may be subject to disciplinary procedures in accordance with Child Safety and Wellbeing Policy, Reporting Child Abuse and Reportable Conduct Procedure, Council's Disciplinary Policy and/or relevant terms of engagement.

Staff are obliged to report any breaches of the SCYP Code of Conduct and reportable conduct allegations to their manager, Manager People & Culture or Project Officer – Child Safe Standards.

Staff are also obliged to report and self-disclose information regarding themselves including being questioned, charged or convicted of a criminal offence which relates to children or young people, being named as a respondent on a Family Violence or Personal Safety Intervention Order where children are named as protected persons or being subject to reportable allegations or employment action within any other organisation.

In instances where a reportable conduct allegation has been made, the matter will be managed in accordance with Council's Reporting Child Abuse and Reportable Conduct Procedure and may be subject to referral to Victoria Police.

If a staff member thinks that the SCYP Code of Conduct has been breached by another staff member, they will:

- act in the best interest of the child or young person.
- act promptly to ensure that the child or young person is safe.
- promptly follow Council's reporting procedures.

Declaration

I have read, understood and agree to comply with this Safeguarding Children and Young People Code of Conduct.

I understand the importance of keeping children and young people safe and my obligations to report a concern.
